Under the 1999 Non-Employee Directors Plan, each Non-Employee Director is automatically granted an option to purchase 1,000 shares of Common Stock on the day after each annual meeting of the Company's stockholders (each, a "Grant Date"). All options issued under the 1999 Non-Employee Directors Plan are exercisable at a per share exercise price equal to the closing sales price of a share of Common Stock on the Grant Date.

In general, each option granted under the 1999 Non-Employee Directors Plan becomes exercisable in equal increments of 200 shares on each of the first through fifth anniversaries of the date the option is granted, and subject to the foregoing, may be exercised during the ten year period from the date the option is granted. However, a Non-Employee Director who ceases to perform services for the Company will have three months (one year in the case of termination by reason of death or total disability) to exercise his or her outstanding options, but only to the extent otherwise exercisable under the vesting schedule.

Under the 1999 Non-Employee Directors Plan, the Board of Directors, acting in its discretion, may (i) make a one-time grant of an option to purchase up to 10,000 shares of Common Stock to an individual when he or she first becomes a Non-Employee Director and (ii) increase the number of shares covered by the automatic annual option grant to Non-Employee Directors to as many as 2,000 shares.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

General. The Compensation Committee for the fiscal year ended January 31, 2002 consisted of Thomas J. Brosig and Sigmund Weiss. The Company's compensation policies have evolved over the years since the Company's initial public stock offering in December 1989. At the time of the public offering and periodically since then, the compensation levels of the Company's executive officers were reviewed and compared to officers of other publicly held apparel companies.

The Company adopted the 1989 Plan in 1989 and increased the number of shares subject to the 1989 Plan in January 1992 and June 1994. In 1997, the Company adopted the 1997 Plan and in 2000 the Company increased the number of shares subject to the 1997 Plan. The 1989 Plan and 1997 Plan are administered by the Option Committee, which is currently composed of Willem van Bokhorst and George J. Winchell.

One of the Company's strengths is a strong management team. The compensation program is designed to enable the Company to attract, retain and reward capable employees who contribute to the Company's success. Equity participation and a strong alignment to stockholders' interests are key elements of the Company's compensation philosophy. The Company's executive compensation policies are intended to (i) attract and retain the most highly qualified managerial and executive talent; (ii) afford appropriate incentives to produce superior performance; (iii) emphasize sustained performance by aligning rewards with stockholder interests; (iv) motivate executives and employees to achieve the Company's annual and long-term business goals; and (v) reward executives for superior individual contributions to the Company. To implement these policies, the Board of Directors designed an executive compensation program consisting, in general, of base salary, annual bonus plan and stock options.

Under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code") publicly held companies may be prohibited from deducting as an expense for federal income tax purposes total remuneration in excess of $1 million paid to certain executive officers in a single year. However, Section 162(m) of the Code provides an exception for "performance-based" remuneration, including remuneration attributable to certain stock options. The Company expects to keep "non-performance-based" remuneration within the $1 million limit to ensure that all executive compensation will be fully deductible. Nevertheless, although the Committee considers the net cost to the Company in making all compensation decisions (including, for this purpose, the potential limitation on deductibility of executive compensation), there is no assurance that compensation realized with respect to any particular award will qualify as "performance-based" remuneration.

Base Salary. Base salaries reflect individual responsibilities, experience, leadership and contribution to the success of the Company. Annual salary adjustments are generally determined by evaluating the performance of the executive and any increased responsibilities assumed by the executive, the performance of the Company and the competitive marketplace. During the fiscal year ended January 31, 2000 ("fiscal 2000") the fiscal year ended January 31, 2001 ("fiscal 2001"), and the fiscal year ended January 31, 2002 ("fiscal 2002") the Company granted certain salary increases based on performance and the competitive marketplace.

Annual Bonuses. The Company implemented a discretionary bonus program in 1997. Under the discretionary program, if the Company's overall profit target is met, management personnel are entitled to receive bonuses, determined by Morris Goldfarb, the Chief Executive Officer of the Company, based on an evaluation of the executive's individual performance and contribution to the Company's results of operations. The Company's range of profit targets for fiscal 2000 and 2001 were met and the bonuses awarded to Ms. Nostra-Katz, Mr. Miller and Mr. Sutton Jones are set forth in the Summary Compensation Table. Although the Company did not achieve its fiscal 2002 profit target, Ms. Nostra-Katz, Mr. Miller and Mr. Sutton Jones were awarded bonuses because their significant efforts helped the Company achieve profitable operations in spite of the challenges presented by the economic slowdown in the United States, the events of September 11 and one of the warmest fall/winter seasons on record.

The Company has an incentive compensation program for division Vice-Presidents, including Ms. Gaertner. The incentive compensation program is based on targeted division and overall company performance. The bonuses paid to Ms. Gaertner in fiscal 2000, 2001 and 2002 reflect her division and the Company's performance relative to the targets set.

Mr. Goldfarb has a performance-based incentive bonus provision in his employment agreement. This incentive provision is intended to recognize Mr. Goldfarb's unique role in overall management and corporate strategy and provide incentive compensation based on overall performance by the Company.

Pursuant to the terms of his employment agreement, Mr. Goldfarb was paid a bonus of $497,355 with respect to fiscal 2000, a bonus of $1,058,419 with respect to fiscal 2001 and a bonus of $126,900 with respect to fiscal 2002. In addition, Mr. Goldfarb was paid an additional bonus of $57,182 in fiscal 2002 which was due him from a prior fiscal year.

Stock Options. The Compensation Committee endorses the position that equity ownership by management is beneficial in aligning management's and stockholders' interests in the enhancement of stockholder value. Stock option awards provide a long-term view and incentives tied to growth in stockholder values. The Committee strongly believes that the compensation program should provide employees with an opportunity to increase their ownership and potentially gain financially from Company stock price increases. By this approach, the best interests of stockholders, executives and employees will be closely aligned.

The Committee believes that the use of stock options as the basis for long-term incentive compensation meets the Company's compensation strategy and business needs of the Company by achieving increased value for stockholders and retaining key employees. The Committee intends to work closely with the Option Committee to achieve these goals.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

In accordance with its written charter adopted by the Board of Directors, the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors is responsible for, among other things, reviewing and discussing the audited financial statements with management, discussing with the Company's auditors information relating to the auditors' judgments about the quality of the Company's accounting principles. Each of the members of the Audit Committee is an "independent director" as that term is defined in the listing standards of Nasdaq.

Management is responsible for the Company's financial reporting process including its system of internal control and for the preparation of consolidated financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. The Company's independent auditors are responsible for auditing those financial statements. The responsibility of the Audit Committee is to monitor and review these processes. Members of the Audit Committee are not employees of the Company and may not be accountants or auditors by profession. Therefore, the Audit Committee has relied, without independent verification, on management's representation that the financial statements have been prepared with integrity and objectivity and in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles and on the representations of the independent auditors included in their report of the Company's financial statements. The oversight by the Audit Committee does not provide an independent basis to determine that management has maintained appropriate accounting and financial reporting principles or policies, or appropriate internal controls and procedures designed to assure compliance with accounting standards and applicable laws and regulations. Furthermore, the Audit Committee cannot give assurance that the Company's financial statements are presented in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, that the audit of the Company's financial statements has been carried out in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards or that the Company's independent accountants are in fact "independent."

Review of Audited Financial Statements. The Audit Committee has reviewed the Company's audited financial statements for the fiscal year ending January 31, 2001 as prepared by Ernst & Young LLP, the Company's independent auditors, and has discussed these financial statements with management. In addition, the Audit Committee has discussed with Ernst & Young LLP the matters required to be discussed by Statement of Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communication with Audit Committees) regarding the codification of statements on auditing standards. Furthermore, the Audit Committee has received the written disclosures and the letter from Ernst & Young LLP required by the Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 and has discussed with Ernst & Young LLP its independence.

Recommendation. In reliance on the reviews and discussions referenced above, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements for the fiscal year ended January 31, 2002 be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for that fiscal year.

Membership. The Audit Committee for the fiscal year ended January 31, 2002 consisted of Messrs. Brosig, Weiss and van Bokhorst.

INDEPENDENT PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

On July 20, 2000, the Company dismissed Grant Thornton LLP as its principal accountants and engaged Ernst & Young LLP. The decision to change accountants was approved by the Company's Audit Committee.

Neither of the reports of Grant Thornton LLP on the financial statements for the Company's fiscal years ended January 31, 1999 and January 31, 2000, contained an adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, nor was either qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope, or accounting principles. During the fiscal years ended January 31, 1999 and January 31, 2000, the three months ended April 30, 2000, and through July 20, 2000, there were no disagreements with Grant Thornton LLP on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements, if not resolved to the satisfaction of Grant Thornton LLP, would have caused it to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreements in connection with its report.

During the fiscal years ended January 31, 1999 and January 31, 2000, the three months ended April 30, 2000, and through July 20, 2000, the Company had not consulted Ernst & Young LLP regarding any matter requiring disclosure under Item 304(a)(2) of Regulation S-K.

The Company provided Grant Thornton LLP with a copy of this disclosure and requested that Grant Thornton LLP furnish it with a letter addressed to the SEC, stating whether it agrees with the above statements. In a letter to the SEC dated July 27, 2000, Grant Thornton LLP stated that it agreed with the statements in the prior three paragraphs as such statements pertained to Grant Thornton LLP.

AUDIT FEES

Ernst & Young LLP billed the Company an aggregate of $200,875 in fees, for professional services rendered in connection with the audit of the Company's financial statements for the fiscal year ended January 31, 2002 and the reviews of the financial statements included in the Company's Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the quarters ended April 31, 2001, July 31, 2001 and October 31, 2001.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION SYSTEMS DESIGN AND IMPLEMENTATION FEES

ALL OTHER FEES

Ernst & Young LLP billed the Company an aggregate of $235,250 in fees for services rendered to the Company other than the services described above under "Audit Fees," for the fiscal year ended January 31, 2002. These fees relate to tax and other services.

The Audit Committee has considered whether the provision of the above services is compatible with maintaining Ernst & Young LLP's independence.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

In September 1986, the New York City Industrial Development Agency ("IDA") issued $1,442,000 of floating rate Industrial Development Revenue Bonds to a commercial bank for the purpose of acquiring and renovating real property located at 345 West 37th Street in New York City (the "345 Property"). Simultaneously, the IDA leased the 345 Property for a term of 15 years to 345 West 37th Corp. ("345 Corp."), a company owned and managed by Morris Goldfarb and Aron Goldfarb, for sublease to a subsidiary of the Company as its headquarters. Monthly rental payments were due under the sublease in an amount equal to the aggregate of all amounts due under the bonds (including principal, redemption premium, if any, and interest), plus real estate taxes and building operating expenses. Two of the Company's subsidiaries and Morris Goldfarb and Aron Goldfarb (collectively, the "Guarantors") jointly and severally guaranteed the payments and obligations under the lease and the payment of principal and interest on the bonds. In accordance with their terms, the IDA Bonds were paid in full as of October 2001.

In April 1988, 345 Corp. received a loan in the principal amount of $1,153,000 from the New York Job Development Authority (the "Authority"), to assist 345 Corp. in its renovation of the 345 Property. The loan, which is financed by long-term bonds issued by the Authority, is for a period of 15 years and is repayable in principal installments of $10,689 monthly, plus interest at a variable rate, not to exceed 12% above the Authority's cost of the funds loaned. At January 31, 2002, the interest rate on and the outstanding principal amount of the loan were 8.25% and approximately $159,000, respectively. Each of the Guarantors has guaranteed the loan.

Each of Morris Goldfarb and Lyle Berman and/or related family partnerships or trusts for the benefit of their children are beneficial owners of an aggregate of more than 10% of the fully diluted common equity of Wilsons The Leather Experts Inc. ("Wilson's"), a retail leather apparel chain. Each of Mr. Goldfarb and Mr. Berman is also a director of Wilson's. During the year ended January 31, 2002, sales by the Company to Wilson's accounted for approximately $11.6 million of the Company's net sales.
